World Missionary Press, Inc.

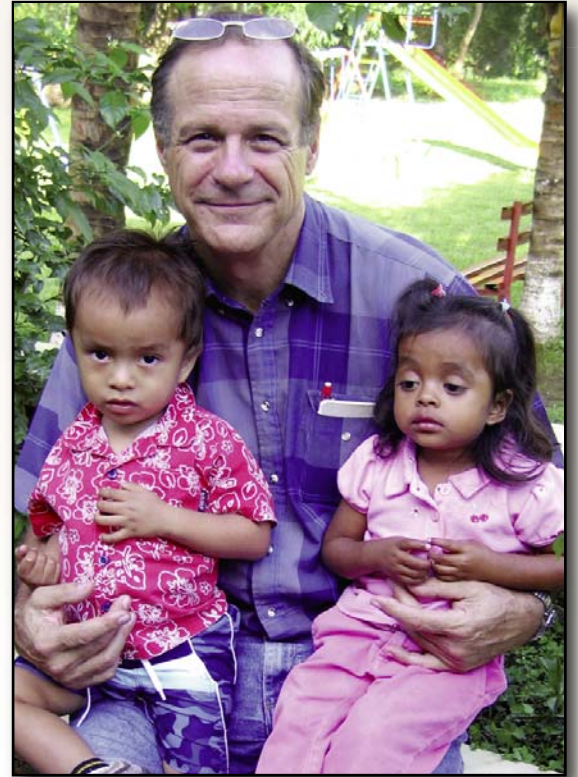

Praising God for 48 years of ministry to millions!

SATURDAY, 6:00 P.M.

OCTOBER 24, 2009

Steve Bakos was first called to take the gospel to the mission fields of northern Mexico in 1991. Then in 2003 the Lord sent him to serve in Nicaragua with Messiah Project. Messiah Project is an indigenous, faith-based ministry, caring for abused and abandoned children in their Land of Judah orphanage, discipling inmates at the men's and women's federal prisons, and providing children's education and meals. Steve also works with the Miskito Indians in the remote jungles of northeastern Nicaragua.

Steve oversaw translation of Help From Above, How to Know God, and The Way to God Scripture booklets and A Bible Study on John in the Miskito language, which have now been distributed to thousands of Miskito Indians who had never seen the written Word of God. Currently, Steve is working on translating A Bible Study on Revelation for distribution throughout the region. Living in such extreme poverty, these forgotten people could never buy a Bible of their own. It is Steve's prayer and goal to one day have all of WMP's literature translated and available to these precious people.

Steve Bakos, warm-spirited man of vision and action

The Stutzman Family

Special Music

The Stutzman Family Singers live in Plymouth, IN. Since 1999, the Stutzman family has ministered to thousands at churches, concerts, fairs, banquets, revivals, and citywide crusades. They have been featured on television and can be heard on radio and satellite stations around the world.

Ryan and Heather, who started singing together in high school, were married in 1989. They have ministered in various ways since they were very young, and are humbled to pass that attitude of service on to their daughters, Belinda, MaKayla, and Rebecca.

The Stutzman family believes in sharing the gospel through song, testimonies, humorous stories, and a worshipful attitude.

FIELD FLASH

Gary Phillips of Blissfield, MI, established Hope & Encouragement for Humanity, Inc. (HEH) in 2003. After working with local and foreign missions for more than ten years, Gary realized that people everywhere lacked the basics of life: food, clothing, shelter. HEH networks with other organizations to bring help to the hurting.

Gary and team delivered thousands of Kreyol New Testaments from World Missionary Press for distribution in Haiti.

FIELD FLASH

Dean and Carrye Crowder have been affiliated with WMP since 1994 in personal booklet distribution, and most recently as WMP Members. They split time between living in Dallas, Texas and New York City. Dean travels extensively as a global marketer and has distributed WMP booklets in more than 25 countries.

So I don't forget
