What WMP Volunteers say...

“Working at WMP is a great privilege. Every time I put a handful of booklets into a box, I think of whose hands those booklets will go into and how God will use them in people’s lives.” —Ashley

“Working at WMP is a joy, a time to serve people around the world. You know that people who get the booklets are thankful for your time and effort.”

—Danny

“It is fun working there with friends, and it is good to know people will get saved by what we are doing there.” —Rachel

“We have seen a good work ethic develop in our son through his help at WMP. He is learning how to work with others. What delights us most is his part in kingdom work.”
