A SECOND CHANCE

A business man from South Africa had lost his home and business due to infidelity. Life looked so painful and empty that he decided to commit suicide. He booked a room in a cheap hotel, intent on shooting himself.

On the bedside dresser lay a scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. Something prompted him to pick it up and read it. As he read God's word, his heart was stirred with hints of hope. Falling on his knees he asked Jesus for forgiveness and a second chance. Today all is well with his soul and with his home and business.

You can share this message of a new beginning with someone struggling to find a way out of what may seem to be a hopeless situation. World Missionary Press scripture booklets can help.

JESUS LOVES THE LITTLE CHILDREN

While visiting ministry partners in Haiti, Roger was prompted by the Lord to speak to a certain young Haitian boy on a crowded street. Etienne, the young Haitian boy, was involved in a Bible class with several other boys. Roger asked if the boys had Bibles. Etienne explained that none of the boys had a Bible. They simply shared stories they heard in church. Roger was deeply touched and promised to bring 10 New Testaments in Kreyol for them when he returned to Haiti.

On his next trip to Haiti Roger took 10 Kreyol New Testaments from World Missionary Press as he had promised. Etienne and his friends responded to this sacred gift with tears of happiness.

A MESSAGE ALL CAN HEAR

Jim has been sharing God's word through World Missionary Scripture booklets for many years. He knows that the word changes lives and gives hope in any situation. He and his wife found a unique way of sharing that word with their neighborhood in northern Mexico. Every morning at 7AM Jim turns on a loud speaker outside his house and begins to read the verses from one page of the 48 page How to Know God scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. He gives no commentary, he just reads God's word.

Over an eight month period of hearing that word 29 homes have opened to meeting three nights a week for Bible study.

HUNGRY TO KNOW MORE

For five years Ar had been following Jesus and learning what it means to be a Christian in his home in Afghanistan. It is very difficult to be a Christian in his country so he needed to be careful, yet he was confident that Jesus loved him and knew that he loved Jesus too.

To help him learn more about God's word, he would find material on the internet, translate it into Dari, his native language, and then share it with others who also needed to learn more. Then he discovered that World Missionary Press provides a free 48-page scripture booklet, Help From Above, in his language. He requested a supply of this booklet, containing over 300 scripture portions, to carefully do what he considered "a holy job" for Christ in Afghanistan.

BECAUSE OF JESUS

In a village in India, 50 tribal families heard the gospel and responded by accepting Jesus, who forgave their sins and set them free. Soon persecution came. The village chief told them they could no longer live in the village. The new Christians gathered all their belongings and trudged out of the village, leaving behind everything they knew, owned, and loved. As they were leaving the chief said they would be allowed to come back if they paid a penalty and denied Christ. Not one of them turned back. Instead, they walked until they finally found shelter under trees in the jungle.

TAKING THE GOSPEL EVERYWHERE

Francisco loves to share the good news of the gospel by giving out scripture booklets from World Missionary Press, no matter where he is. While on vacation from his home in Brazil he distributed booklets in the airport in Santiago, Chile in Spanish, then in Auckland, New Zealand and Sydney, Australia in English.

While in Sydney, Francisco went to a Chinese church and gave the pastor a box of scripture booklets in Chinese, plus some in English for their English service. From his home in Brazil, he has sent booklets to contacts in Europe, and to other South American countries, introducing World Missionary Press scripture booklets so that others can give the gospel freely to anyone anywhere.
