

You're Invited to the 58th Anniversary Celebration Dinner of World Missionary Press, Inc.

6:00 P.M., SATURDAY ~ OCTOBER 19, 2019

Israel Matos Collado serves as Regional Director for Latin America with Every Home for Christ. Born in Guantanamo City, Cuba, on July 29, 1975, he holds degrees in Computer Science, Theology, and Biblical Studies. Israel worked full time with Assemblies of God in Cuba from June 2006 until August 2017 during which time he also served as Project Director for EHC-Cuba. EHC is associated with more than 2,000 churches from all over Cuba who are working together to produce, buy, and distribute evangelistic literature for the country's homes, hospitals, and prisons. It is a job carried out door by door in a rational effort to present the plan of salvation to every Cuban home. The Cuban Church has recorded thousands of people accepting Jesus through this effort every year.

In December 2016, he was promoted to the position of Regional Director for Latin America with Every Home for Christ. Israel, his wife Yaiset, and their two children (Ana and Israel IV) were relocated to Miami, Florida in August 2017. From there they pray and work with the EHC offices in Latin America, dreaming God's dream of reaching every home with a meaningful face to face gospel presentation, leaving a copy of His message behind.

Fairfield High School's Advanced Chorale is a select ensemble of 42 members. They have consistently received Gold Ratings in the highest division of the Indiana State School Music Association's state contest and are seven-time state finalists, including 4th place finishes among all Indiana high school choirs in 2015 and 2016. The choir has also been recognized on a national level, placing first at the Heritage Music Festival in New York City where they performed at the historic Riverside Church on the Upper East side of Manhattan. Advanced Chorale also performs at many church, school and community functions. They are directed by Ben Kambs and accompanied by Larry Becker.

Benjamin Kambs has been the director of choirs at Fairfield Junior/Senior High School since 2003. Kambs received his Master's degree in Music Education from Western Michigan University in 2013 and a B.M. in Music Education from St. Olaf College in 2000. He has served as a guest clinician for the Area I Middle School Circle the State with Song festival and as the Indiana Choral Directors Association Repertoire and Resources Chair for High Schools. Ben currently resides in Constantine, Michigan with his wife, Breana.

Diane Studer
Diane Studer is Founder and Executive Director of Soles For Jesus, a ministry sharing the love of Jesus in Africa with shoes and foot washing. Diane worked at an investment firm for 15 years, until she went on a life-changing trip to Africa where the Lord called her to start SFJ. Since 2009, 485,000 pairs of shoes along with WMP Scripture booklets have been freely given in 17 countries resulting in thousands of people committing their lives to Jesus Christ. To God be the glory for the beautiful partnership that exists between WMP and SFJ, as we meet physical and spiritual needs together.

Diane was born in The Netherlands and currently lives in Wisconsin with her husband and two children. She also finds great joy in encouraging others to follow their God-given purpose.
