TAXI EVANGELISTS

One morning Johan discovered a copy of the Help From Above Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press in his study in South Africa. He could not stop reading it, struck by the wonderful content of the booklet. He began to consider how he could share this wonderful booklet with others. How can just one person make a lasting impact for the Kingdom of God?

God opened a door for Johan to help provide Scripture booklets to South Africans through thousands of taxi drivers. He joined forces with the president of a large taxi business who was also interested in serving the Lord. This new friend was very willing to make the scripture booklets available to all of his taxi drivers who would, in turn, distribute the booklets to their passengers.

A TEN YEAR JOURNEY

A Chinese lady received a World Missionary Press scripture booklet in a tourist bag on the island of Macau ten years ago. By divine appointment, she met the tourist bag distributors ten years later at the very same location. She even remembered that the bag was red in color! She had been studying in a church in Qingdao for three months but had not yet accepted Jesus. The distributor joyfully led her to pray aloud to accept Jesus.

After ten years, she now left them very thankful and happy as a new believer. God's timing is perfect. A woman received a World Missionary Press scripture booklet and ten years later was at the right place, and the right time, to be led to salvation in Jesus Christ.

NO PLACE TOO REMOTE

There are an estimated 640,000 villages in India with a total population of 833 million! Many are very remote, but that does not deter the efforts of pastors and evangelists working to reach each village with the gospel.

One group of 10 churches in one part of India discovered the World Missionary Press Scripture booklet How to Know God. After reading the booklet they determined that this would be the right tool to take the gospel to these remote villages. Each of the ten churches would cover one remote village a month by distributing 1,000 scripture booklets. This plan would require 10,000 copies of How to Know God each month. Although the task of reaching 640,000 villages seems daunting, these believers are willing to go to one village at a time, no matter how remote.

DO YOU UNDERSTAND WHAT YOU ARE READING?

In a refugee camp in Malawi a man sat in front of a small thatched hut with a copy of a Bible Study on John from World Missionary Press. As he fled from the devastation in Mozambique someone had given him this portion of God's word.

Chuck was visiting the camp and noticed the man and the book. He stopped to talk and learned that the man needed someone to help him understand what he was reading. As they talked Chuck learned the man was an animist. Sitting down next to him Chuck told him about Jesus. God sent someone to give this man the book and another person to help him understand.

GOD'S WORD FOR ALL

Tom woke up while it was still dark. He wanted to go to the Buddhist shrine in this Cambodian village and pass out scripture booklets from World Missionary Press to those visiting the shrine early in the morning. He watched for the policeman, in case he would be restricted from handing out booklets, but even the policeman took one. He was able to hand booklets to many visitors.

Two Buddhist women who sold flowers for sacrifice took the booklets and began reading them right away! For Tom that made it all worthwhile! He knew the power of God's word and that God had promised His word would not return void. That morning many Cambodians received the truth of the One true God.

GOD ALWAYS HAS A WAY

Marli and her family began street evangelism in Catalonia, Spain using scripture booklets from World Missionary Press. People did not readily receive the booklets and Marli was concerned. The family began to pray and the Lord gave an answer....begin the work in the city squares.

So Marli and her family went to the city squares, leaving scripture booklets on the benches. People would arrive, take the booklet and begin to read. Some would put it back on the bench, but most put the booklet in their pocket.

Marli began to get phones calls asking for prayer or offering to help distribute the booklets. One lady who called for prayer joined Marli and her family in worship meetings. God directed Marli and her family in the way He had prepared for His word to be received.

GOD'S WORD IN MY LANGAUGE

Ruth has a heart to reach out to people with the gospel. At least twice a day she takes her sister's granddaughter for a walk in a stroller to get her to sleep. She loads copies of the World Missionary Press Bible Study on John in various South African languages in the bottom of the stroller. As she comes across local people working or walking she gives them a copy. They are delighted to get a copy in their own language!

When Ruth shops at the local store in Pretoria the cashiers and packers notice the books in the stroller and eagerly ask for copies. Ruth is blessed each day as she finds a way to share God's word.
