EXACTLY WHAT WE WERE LOOKING FOR!

For three years Rene had worked with a mission team actively sharing Christian literature in his country of Ghana as well as neighboring countries. They had material in French and English but recognized the enormous need for something to share in some of the other languages of the region as well as literature for children.

One day Rene saw a Way to God Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. He thought to himself, "This is exactly what we have been looking for!" He quickly went to the World Missionary Press website and was very impressed with what he saw. He was amazed to find other titles and booklets available in local languages. The Way to God was exactly what he had been praying for for a long time to include children in the literature outreach. He ordered thousands of Help From Above and Way to God booklets in six languages!

GOD'S WORD FOR CHINA

One day on a street in Sweden a stranger offered a tourist a Help From Above Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. The tourist treasured the booklet and took it back home to Canada. He couldn't wait to share it with his friend Hu.

Hu had been looking for Biblical material to share with his brothers and sisters in home churches in China. He knew of their desire to know God more, of their love for Jesus and zeal for His kingdom. Here was Christian literature he could send to them! Going to the World Missionary Press website he found The Way to God booklet to provide for those in China who are unsaved but have a desire to know God.

God used a faithful believer in Sweden and two fellow believers in Canada to provide encouragement and precious Scripture booklets for His children in China.

A CHANGED HEART

Fred put out World Missionary Press Scripture booklets in front of his house for local college students to pick up. Twice someone came and burned the booklets, leaving the ashes on his porch. At first Fred was angry but then he began to pray.

Finally he caught the person red-handed. It was a student who lived next door. He asked why the young man was doing this but received only an angry scowl in response. Fred continued to pray for his neighbor. One day the young man came over and began to talk about his life. The door was opened for Fred to tell him about Jesus through The Way to God booklet from World Missionary Press, the same booklet he had burned. The young man quietly took the booklet and began to read! God had answered Fred's prayer.

A BETTER PLAN

Jean loved to share World Missionary Press Scripture booklets and had ordered thousands of booklets in multiple languages. But one day she had a stroke and was unable to continue giving them out. It broke her heart to quit. She still had so many booklets of every kind and didn't want to see them go unused. She prayed, "Lord, did I make a mistake when I ordered so many?"

The Lord gave a gracious answer. She had not made a mistake. He had a better plan. Jean had prayed for more workers to help spread the gospel in her Canadian city. Now a new church, started by a group from Texas, was willing to take all the booklets and give them out in her city of one million people! One person was not enough for the task. Her prayers for more workers had been answered.

Jose had a wholesale business in Argentina. He began to worry about the business when many of his customers had not paid him. He couldn't sleep at night and became violent with his employees and family.

Francisco met Jose one day and gave him a Power of God Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. Jose accepted the booklet gladly. The next day he went to Francisco's house with the booklet in his hand. After reading the booklet he wanted Francisco to teach him how he could give his life to Jesus. Francisco explained how to receive Christ and together they prayed. Jose gave his life and his problems into the hands of God. As he left he told Francisco, "Now I feel that I am truly free."

OFFERING HOPE

Ann wants to spend life spreading the good news of the gospel in neighborhoods where young men and women have no hope or regard for human life because they do not know Jesus. One of Ann's nephews was ambushed and gunned down by five masked men in broad daylight, placing this heavy burden on her heart.

The school where Ann works has an after school Bible class. Another nephew who lives with Ann received a World Missionary Press Scripture booklet from a teacher in the Bible class. When Ann saw the booklet she thought of all the ways she could use this small booklet. She teaches a children's Bible class at church. She sees the homeless and people asking for help on the streets. She can give them all the words of hope and healing.
