POISON GANG ROBBERY

The Poison Gang, known for robberies in Cape Verde, had a new target—robbing churches on Sunday nights before the Monday morning bank deposit.

One evening they broke into a church while a group of believers was holding a prayer vigil. They took the believer's cell phones and money. As they looted a different church another night, Barto took a backpack from the church office. Inside he found a Bible and The Way to God Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. He was going to burn them but instead he kept them to read when he was bored.

After many days of rereading the booklet, Barto was filled with both hope and guilt. He called a number written inside the Bible and talked to Miguel who led Barto to Jesus at the same church he had robbed.

BIG RETURNS FROM SMALL BEGINNINGS

Years ago Jane's husband received a "How to Know God" scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. He would read it often. With declining strength, he could no longer hold his Bible, but he could read and reread the little booklet and find comfort.

After he died Jane wanted to give her late husband's friends a booklet. She knew they, too, would like to read "How to Know God" because of its special place in her husband's life. She searched in vain to find the source of the old, worn booklet. Finally, after praying, she found WMP online and requested the free booklets.

Sharing the Gospel doesn't have to be difficult. This story is a moving illustration of how easily you can share God's word and help lead others to Jesus. Pray for opportunities to use the Word in booklet form to reach others.

World Missionary Press would like to send you a free booklet. Receive yours by calling 1-800-422-W.O.R.D. That's 1-800-422-W.O.R.D.

COVID19 AND SCRIPTURE BOOKLETS

Jim caught the last flight out of Honduras before the country was completely shut down due to the Covid19 pandemic. During his just-ended three week stay he was able to meet pastors from every community in Trujillo. Each pastor received 2 boxes of Scripture booklets from World Missionary Press as well as hygiene kits and gel sanitizers. A total of 3,800 kits were distributed to nineteen pastors. Many of the pastors testified that they had been trying to find a way to penetrate their communities and this was the answer. Souls were saved and many were reconciled to Christ.

Later, a group of 20 pastors met to unite in reaching their communities. Each received 2 boxes of booklets, expressing their commitment to distribute them within their communities. The booklets serve as a uniting and effective way to reach a city with the love of God.

SHOES AND SCRIPTURE

Who would have thought that giving a pair of shoes and a small booklet of scripture verses would bring so much joy to people in the African nation of Lesotho!

A mission team went from village to village sharing Christ's love in word and deed. In response, lives were changed and church members energized to share the gospel.

A community leader stated, "The word of God is alive! I believed God's word when a team visited our remote and mountainous area. They were passionate and friendly, going door to door, freely giving out World Missionary Press Scripture booklets and pairs of shoes. I was touched by the love of God and was convinced to accept Jesus and follow Him. My life has changed."

God's word in their own language carried the truth of the gospel deep into the hearts of those receiving the scripture booklets.

SCRIPTURE FOR THE SOLDIERS

Sharing the gospel openly with an on-duty military officer can often be very disarming. Lydia and her family have been reaching villages up and down the Amazon River from their home in Colombia for 20 years. Pastors are excited to receive the boxes of World Missionary Press Scripture booklets and God has blessed the region through His word.

Since 2012 many of the Scripture booklets have been distributed among the Colombian military, who receive them with great appreciation. Scripture booklets can be found on the desk of top Colombian officers, with one Colonel responding, "I don't start my day without reading Scripture." A Master Sergeant commented, "It goes with me everywhere" as he pulled a tattered World Missionary Press booklet from his pocket. Lydia and her family have received hugs and seen tears as soldiers told them, "Thank you for remembering to evangelize the military. We need it."

A DIFFERENT GOSPEL

Malim's village openly denied the gospel, but when a team came and shared the message of Jesus Christ through Scripture booklets from World Missionary Press, Malim recognized this was a different gospel and excitedly accepted Jesus as Savior, He finally understood how much God loved him.

The missionary team also shared a Scripture booklet with Lera, who was amazed that the simple message would touch his life in such a way. In great appreciation he responded, "I was rescued from dying in my sin."

Paul received a copy of Help From Above from World Missionary Press. "My life will never be the same as I read this small booklet with powerful chapters and verses from the Bible".

The team was encouraged to see hearts opened, people learning of God's love and discovering the importance of reading His word. Only the gospel of Jesus Christ can change lives.

UNPLANNED CIRCUMSTANCES

For believers around the world Scripture booklets from World Missionary Press are a vital part in their day to day sharing of the love of Christ. From open street evangelism to those confined in prison, the message of hope is received. Suddenly, the normal became a "new normal". A global pandemic closed doors.

Undeterred, believers reached out in new ways, offering hope to a world now living under a cloud of fear and uncertainty. Families read Bible study books together, packages of food and supplies included Scripture booklets. Chaplains pleaded for as many copies as they could get to offer comfort.

God still had a plan to draw a world hungry for peace to Himself. Scripture booklets were even more effective as people reached out to receive words of assurance as personal witnessing was restricted.

God's word is always the answer, no matter the circumstances.
