Dear Friends and Prayer Partners,

Many great love stories, such as Romeo and Juliet, involve doing the impossible, suffering wrongs, or dying. They actually mimic the greatest love story still in process. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life (Jn. 3:16).

1. God did the impossible: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son (Isaiah 7:14). Jesus agreed by making Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. (Philippians 2:7).

2. The Father knew and Jesus knew He would suffer: Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished. For He will be delivered to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon. They will scourge Him ... (Luke 18:31-33a).

3. God asked His Son to die and Jesus willingly did so: "My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life. ... No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. ... This command I have received from My Father"(John 10:17, 18).

As believers, and the bride of Christ, we participate on multiple levels in this on going love story. Here is one scenario: Jesus asks us to do what seems impossible: Go ... make disciples of all nations (Matthew 28:19). To accept abuse by pray[ing] for those who spitefully use you (Matthew 5:44), and finally, to deny [ourselves] and take up [our] cross daily, and follow [Him] (Luke 9:23). Even though this isn't our usual definition of love this is how we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren (1 John 3:16).

In the Name of the One Who Loves us Most!

OCTOBER, 2022

(This month we began listing the languages we print here at WMP. You can look up the language to find out where it is spoken and better understand the people.)

- 1 DAILY FOCUS FOR OCTOBER: PRAISE that phase 1 of our building project is complete. PRAISE Him for how smooth the movement of shelving, stock and machinery is going.
PRAY for people who speak Acoli.
... for they perceived that this work was done by our God. (Nehemiah 6:16b)
- 2 PRAISE that all supplies needed—paper, ink, etc.—will be available without undue delays. PRAISE especially for availability of sheet-fed paper for printing covers, going into next year.
PRAY for the people who speak Afrikaans.
Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us. (Ephesians 3:20)
- 3 PRAISE for Helen as she communicates with national coordinators and for Immanuel as he interacts with shipping agents, freight forwarders, and the truckers who pick up shipments.
PRAY for the people who speak Agusan Manobo.
Commit your works to the LORD, and your thoughts will be established. (Proverbs 16:3)
- 4 PRAISE for wisdom for WMP's IT Department and Landon to keep computers operating well, free from attacks. PRAISE for our consultant, Mike.
PRAY for the people who speak Ahanta.
Pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified. (2 Thess. 3:1b)
- 5 PRAISE the World Prayer Center will be utilized effectively and efficiently. That prayer will be lifted up for WMP, for our local community, for our country, and for the world.
