ACROSS THE BORDER

Difficult circumstances can't stop the advance of God's Word. Merced hands out Scripture booklets from World Missionary Press on the U.S-Mexico border. It can be dangerous in Mexico, but God protects him, and he serves joyfully.

Jim evangelizes in Mexico. In the U.S, news often focuses on the troubles in Mexico. But Jim gets to see God at work every day. Pastors and missionaries walk the streets, the plazas, and door-to-door. They put the Word of God into the hands of thousands of people. Jim believes the most powerful way to reach people is by simply handing them a Scripture booklet. Many times he doesn't even say a word. The Spirit of God moves with just the written Word. Even mafia bosses have been transformed by the gospel in Mexico. Some of them are even pastors now.

IN A TIME OF MY LIFE

God's Word brings hope to hurting people. Julio found the Help from Above booklet from World Missionary Press at a very important moment in his life. He was thirsty and hungry for the truth, but didn't know where to find it. This booklet's message gave him hope and led him to the Lord. He tied his life to its message and started going to church. Julio loves the display of God's power in Psalms 107:20, which says, "He sent His word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions." He saw this promise come true in his own life. God not only healed him, but also delivered him from destruction. He thanks God for His Word, because His Word is hope. Hope for Julio. Hope for Mexico. And hope for the world.

LOST HIS LEG AND LEFT A BOOKLET

Sometimes sharing the gospel requires sacrifice. Tom lost half his leg for handing out a Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press. He had given it to a woman outside her house. She took it and went inside to get her husband. He came out with a pistol and said, "This is what I think of your God!" And he shot Tom's leg. Six months later, Tom was walking by with crutches. The same woman came running up to him. He thought, "Oh Lord, here goes another leg." But then she said, "Sir, my family has been mafia for many years. But you left the How to Know God booklet. We read it, and that booklet changed our lives. Our whole family accepted Jesus in our hearts." Today that man and his family hand out 200 booklets every day.

DISCOVERING CHRIST JUST IN TIME

The gospel can touch our hearts at our lowest moments. Ralph believed life was worthless. He tried to commit suicide. But then he found the Scripture booklet from World Missionary Press called Help from Above. It wasn't meant for him; in fact, he found it in a Muslim home. But that booklet introduced Ralph to God, and it showed him what true life really is. He shared the following. "God sometimes may not intend the Scripture booklet for the person who takes it, but for somebody else. He makes sure the right person reads it at the right time. Like me. That booklet saved my life. Now I share booklets with others at my job. Truly God's Word is living and powerful, and it never returns void."

PURPOSELY ADRIFT AT SEA

God protects His children and His Word. Mike was adrift in the open Philippine Sea. The propeller on his bamboo boat had hit a rock and broken off. And the boat was overloaded with men and boxes of Scripture booklets from World Missionary Press. The captain and crew searched the water for the propeller. One of the team members called 911. And Mike prayed.

Their destination was one of the smallest and most densely populated islands in the Philippines. While adrift, they watched a storm pass over the island, but it didn't hit them. They knew God was protecting the booklets from getting wet, and their boat from sinking. After the storm, the captain discovered the propeller in 8 feet of water, undamaged. He put it back on, and they completed their mission of sharing God's Word.
