Never Too Late

"After more than two years of waiting, the Lord has once again opened the door for World Missionary Press Scripture booklets to reach Venezuela. No shipment had been received since 2022, and today, with joy, we bear witness to the arrival of a new container filled with the Word of God."

These were the words of a new partner as she announced the arrival of a ship container, containing 2,107,500 booklets for 10 pastors in Venezuela on July 17, 2025.

In addition to the 82 WMP national coordinators, God is also raising up a secondary network of volunteers who coordinate larger, direct shipments to ministries in smaller cities and more remote areas of the country. "As the container was opened in Venezuela, it was impressive to see pallets, individually prepared for each pastor, being loaded on trucks and departing to nine different states within the country. These pamphlets will be sown with love and commitment in different regions of the country, trusting that the Word will not return empty-handed, but will fulfill the purpose for which it was sent."

Venezuela has gone through disputed elections in the past year and there are reports of "intensified use of the harshest and most violent tools of repression." This and the unique challenges our shipping department faced in the importation paperwork were prayer concerns. Praise the Lord! Not only did the container arrive unhindered, but our partner explained another reason to rejoice:

“The Lord has been involved in this entire project.”

“This shipment arrives at a crucial moment. In recent years, Venezuela has been exposed to a strong influence from religious movements contrary to the gospel such as witchcraft, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Mormonism, Jehovah’s Witnesses, fetishism, and Santeria. These practices have gained ground in many communities.”

God’s Word never arrives too late. He continues to open doors. Our partner in Venezuela has also opened opportunities for shipments to arrive in Argentina, Uruguay, Peru, and Colombia. A faithful partner in Iowa has been instrumental in getting 7,665,275 booklets sent to 12 countries in the Americas – USA, Panama, Jamaica, Brazil, Belize, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Ecuador, El Salvador, Mexico, Dominican Republic, and Colombia. He sends material to many smaller distributors reaching out to pastors and helping them directly. As a result, WMP booklets are being introduced into more remote areas.

A couple from Minneapolis is very instrumental in getting booklet orders to pastors in Mexico. Their contact in El Paso said, “The booklets are going to pastors and evangelism teams all over Mexico along with new contacts. The pastors say each booklet is like gold and many poor churches cannot believe that we are giving these out free, and they almost cry.”

Because of the availability of the booklets, pastors in Mexico are doing more street ministry. The booklets are changing area churches’ view of witnessing. This same sentiment is echoed in Venezuela. “We pray that the Lord will awaken in His people a spirit of responsibility, obedience, and passion for ‘the [true] God,’ and that each booklet will be used with wisdom and purpose, reaching many with the message of salvation.”

A pastor involved in street ministry in Brazil shared this testimony: "Before preparing for evangelism, I was separating some pamphlets that had only one verse, and I prayed to God to prepare pamphlets that had more verses. When I arrived at the evangelism site, I met with brothers who donated a box of booklets called The Power of God. I saw the importance of prayer and how God is always listening to us. I received a great miracle, and a man accepted the Lord! I am grateful to Jesus for meeting my need, because booklets are a crucial tool for evangelism." —Wesley M.

The Lord continues to bring ministry partners to WMP who have opened doors that seemed closed and provided expanded opportunities for sharing the Scriptures in certain countries. The expressions of gratitude pour in from pastors and evangelists who have discovered the WMP booklets. Our partner in Venezuela ends her letter with these words. "The pastors in Venezuela and brothers who received the pamphlets express first their gratitude to the Lord, and second to World Missionary Press for this valuable donation of evangelistic literature, which after several years has once again arrived in Venezuela to bless many lives."
