SEPTEMBER 2025

Greetings to all my Friends,

I believe that God only asks human beings to do what He has done or is doing. The verse quoted last month, Psalm 113:6, is a good example. It tells us that God humbles Himself to behold the things that are in the heavens and in the earth. Jesus did the same: being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself (Philippians 2:8a).

Because of God and Jesus' humility They have meaningful and interactive relations with humans. The humble He guides in justice, and the humble He teaches His way (Psalm 25:9). He will save the humble people (2 Samuel 22:28a). He does not forget the cry of the humble (Psalm 9:12b).

New Testament doctrines admonish us to be humble. Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble (Romans 12:16b). All of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." (1 Peter 5:5b)

Other references note the benefits of humility. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up (James 4:10). Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time (1 Peter 5:6). Whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven (Matthew 18:4). For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted (Luke 14:11). The humble also shall increase their joy in the LORD (Isaiah 29:19a). The humble in spirit will retain honor (Proverbs 29:23b), and with the humble is wisdom (Proverbs 11:2b). The promises attached to these verses are exceedingly great and precious leading to life and godliness. There is no shame in being humble, for it is necessary to have a relationship with God.
