Major Breakthroughs in 2025

I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will tell of all Your marvelous works. I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High. —Psalm 9:1-2

"I was wondering if our order left your premises?" emailed Brother Emanuel. "We have really run out of literature, and we are in desperate need for this order to arrive soon."

Emanuel's urgent request came in January 2025 because an opportunity had opened to evangelize the northern areas of Angola, but his WMP order was still in production. Due to the urgency of the need, WMP pulled 1,196 boxes of Portuguese from inventory, resulting in 517,550 booklets arriving in Angola early May. In October, at a conference in South Africa, Emanuel was the first to greet Helen (WMP's Director of Orders & Distribution) and said, "You saved us. Thank you."

Because of the many Scripture booklets WMP produces, we are able to help people like Emanuel accomplish the mission and ministry that God has laid on their hearts. We had the privilege of rejoicing over several breakthroughs this past year.

A record number of containers were shipped (90) in the fiscal year, and two long-term projects came to fruition.

"For the LORD has done marvelous things!" (Joel 2:21b)

A Dream Fulfilled

God introduced the Miskito language to WMP in the 1990s, but the translation project languished until 2004. That year Steve B. became a missionary to the Miskito people and agreed to translate the Help From Above booklet, even though he did not yet know the language. As he arrived at the mission for the first time, he walked through the small village, praying and saying, “Okay, God, now what?” A voice hollered, “Hey you.” A man that spoke English, Spanish, and Miskito introduced himself—Onofre. Onofre, a well-qualified university professor, agreed to translate the Scripture booklet and in less than 6 months, the finished booklets were on their way!

In the years following, Steve and Onofre translated additional booklets, but the need for a New Testament grew in the hearts and minds of the Miskito converts. Against many spiritual battles, Steve and Onofre worked for more than 10 years translating and laying out the New Testament in the Miskito language. Steve patiently prayed and waited for the Lord’s timing, hoping he would be holding one in his hand before he died. Over that time the Miskito people, who live in great poverty, raised $50,000 to pay for the printing.

Steve passed away unexpectedly in August 2025. Providentially, he had held a copy of the completed Miskito New Testament and knew that 50,000 copies would be received by the Miskito church. Shortly after, their nation closed its doors to most missionary organizations shutting down imports from the USA. Praise God the Miskito church now has the New Testaments to carry on the work!

In 2023, we had the privilege of sitting down for an exclusive interview with Steve. Scan the QR code to check it out!

Breaking Through Borders

The prayers of Christians in and from Cuba moved the second long-term project to a successful completion. For seven years they prayed that a container of booklets be shipped into this communist country. In His time, God brought faithful people to the right place at the right time. First, a Christian in Cuba asked WMP for one copy of each booklet we printed in Spanish. He courageously showed those booklets to government officials, who approved the booklets for import. However, it was still necessary for a government office to issue an importer’s license. People continued to pray.

Early in 2025 a representative from a WMP shipping partner attended a conference in Miami. As he listened to conversations between two men about Cuba, he realized he and his company could help. They had contacts with licensed importers in Cuba. As pieces fell into place, the presses began to roll and the wheels began to turn.

The 40-foot container full of Spanish Scripture booklets and Bible Studies left our warehouse on July 3, 2025, but was stalled by unfinished paperwork in Jacksonville, Florida. Two months later WMP rejoiced as the container entered Cuban customs. We breathed a collective sigh of relief when the consignee organization received the container on October 14, 2025. It is no coincidence that two weeks later, Hurricane Melissa swept over Cuba, causing severe flooding and infrastructure damage. The Lord allowed His Word to arrive just when people would be open to its message.

What perfect timing in both countries! WMP has a deep sense of fulfillment that we can trust the Lord’s control of our schedules and shipments.

Tyler Bauer WMP President

I am honored and grateful to have accepted the role of President of World Missionary Press, following the appointment of our Board of Directors. From my earliest conversations with WMP, I sensed a deep commitment to Scripture, prayer, and global outreach. Since 1961, WMP has been faithfully printing and distributing gospel booklets around the world—helping people share the love of Jesus. I'm privileged to join this legacy of global outreach and ministry, further extending the supply chain of hope.

In my years of service in operations, leadership development, and organizational management, God has allowed me to build teams, improve systems, steward resources, and guide ministries and businesses through seasons of great growth. I believe these experiences, in combination with my educational background, were preparation for this assignment—helping WMP continue its mission with excellence, clarity, and scale.

My heart is to support our staff and volunteers, deepen our partnerships around the world, and ensure that every booklet we send is backed by prayerful stewardship and operational integrity. I'm excited for the season ahead and the opportunities God is opening for expanded reach and impact because we serve a BIG God. Thank you for your support, prayers, and encouragement as I step into this role. I look forward to seeing the amazing things the Lord will accomplish through WMP in the years to come as we faithfully obey His calling in each of our lives!

2024-25 Fiscal Year Container and *LCL Shipments
90 total containers sent to 45 nations & territories

"LCL" stands for "less-than-container-load" and refers to shipments that are not large enough for a 20-foot container. In addition to the shipments above, millions of booklets were shipped via our Small Orders department.

Sharing the Message of Hope

World Missionary Press is a nonprofit Christian ministry, printing and shipping topical Scripture booklets in over 350 languages, along with Bible studies and New Testaments. Our booklets and materials are freely given away, and we completely rely on the Lord to provide through donations. We want everyone to know Jesus and are committed to sharing the gospel with the world!
