

Greetings to all my Friends,

Kevin Fedarko and Pete McBride hiked the Grand Canyon only because they had a contract with National Geographic. There is no trail, it is extremely dangerous, and they would not have been successful if not for the help of experienced hikers.

Christians are on a hike into Heaven because God has saved us and called us with a holy calling, ... according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began (2 Timothy 1:9). The trail is narrow, difficult and full of obstacles. Therefore, Jesus said, "I am the way. Follow me" (see John 14:6b, 21:19b). Jesus gave us the church that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine. [He wants us to] grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ—from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love. (Ephesians 4:14-16) Kevin wrote: "You do not make the journey alone. ... It is better to experience it with friends who appreciate it as much as you do."

Good advice for Christians, too.
