A Day of Answered Prayer

For years, a furniture owner in La Paz, Bolivia, struggled to keep fellow evangelists supplied with Christian literature. The more Juan bought, the more demand increased. The meager supply of Christian literature available to him was extremely expensive. Juan turned to the Lord for help, asking God to open the doors of heaven. One day he met Peniel, a World Missionary Press distributor who was praying for a man to coordinate a large distribution of booklets in La Paz. On that day, Peniel only supplied Juan with several boxes of booklets. He was ecstatic. Later Peniel invited Juan to help unload a container of 4,250 boxes. As Juan saw the vast number of booklets, he sat on the ground next to a wall, prayed, and wept for joy. God had opened the doors in a mighty way for Juan and provided a coordinator for Peniel.

The Gospel Is Available Anywhere

Evangelists using World Missionary Press booklets have encounters on their journeys like Philip had when he was sent to the desert Gaza road. Francisco hired Eduardo, a native fisherman on the Pilcomayo River on the border between Argentina and Paraguay, to ferry him across the river. Francisco gave Eduardo a booklet, told him about the love of Jesus, and then prayed for him. Eduardo thought the booklet was beautiful, read it, and thought a lot about what it said. When Francisco returned, Eduardo asked him how he could receive Christ. In the middle of the river, Eduardo knelt in his canoe and accepted Jesus as his personal Savior.

“Now I Am A Child of God”

World Missionary Press sends out Scripture booklets to bring people to the Lord. Here is a recent testimony from Zambia: “My name is Zebulun from Lusaka. I have not been a Christian before, and I had nothing to do with God’s Word. I lived in my own world, and I never knew how much God loves me. My life changed when I read the booklet Who Am I that a King Would Die in My Place?. It touched my heart. Considering the kind of life I lived, I never expected to be loved by God. But now I am a child of God. I accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior after reading the booklet and the pastor prayed for me.”

Ministry in Hospitals

A federative unit of Brazil the size of France is being transformed by the distribution of World Missionary Press’ marvelous booklets by one sister in the capital city of Belo Horizonte. Six large hospitals serve not only the 2.4 million residents, but provide medical care to patients from other parts of the state of Minas Geris. Many of these people are involved with idol worship. Maria goes to a different hospital each day and passes out 300 booklets. The patients take the booklets back to their small towns, knowing how to get to heaven through the reading of the precious booklets. Many are being saved through her ministry.

World Missionary Press produces and sends topical Scripture booklets in more than 350 languages for free distributing in over 210 nations. Thousands of distributors around the world request booklets.
