Knowing the One True God

And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. —Jeremiah 29:13

How to Know God (HKG) was one of the first booklets published by World Missionary Press. The message of the booklet is that there is one true God, who is merciful and gracious. As the Creator of mankind, He loves people. He wants a relationship with all humans regardless of nation, tribe, or race. He sent Jesus to make that possible.

Every nation and generation has its altars, holy days, celebrations, and rites. The common denominator is the human desire to know God (See Acts 17:22-28a). This is why the How to Know God booklet is still successfully ministering today and remains one of our most popularly requested booklets.

How wonderful that God reveals Himself to all who seek Him with their whole heart!

—How to Know God, Introduction

A distributor from a South Asian country commented that most of the “people in our country are 99% other religions,” honoring many gods, idols, or ancestors with vain religious practices. Most of the world does not understand that what may be known of God is evident in us and is shown to us by God. Romans 1:20-21 instructs us, “For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead.” Instead, human reasoning and vain religions are followed “because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.”

Therefore, because “the Word of God is living and powerful” and penetrates the heart and soul with the truth (Hebrews 4:12), HKG uses God’s own words to explain why humans have futile thoughts and dark hearts. More importantly, the verses reveal Jesus—His life, ministry, sacrificial death, and resurrection—inviting them into relationship with Him. For if we know Jesus we will know God.

Like Paul, and the other apostles, most evangelists are witnessing across religious lines. Hearers and readers must be convinced that “there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a ransom for all” (1 Timothy 2:5-6a).

Steven S. gives the booklets to [religious] prisoners at the prison where he works as a chaplain. “I have found the booklets helpful in showing prisoners what Christianity is about rather than the false ideas they have. The booklets are useful for prisoners to understand what real Christianity means and how they can know God for themselves.”

Reading the booklet Mike discovered Jesus, the “Word” of God. “I am so delighted to confirm having read your publication entitled How to Know God. Indeed, after having gone through those various pieces of Scripture, my spirit thrilled within me and the Holy Spirit whispered to me and said, ‘It is the true worship for the true Word of God. Pursue it.’”

Elizabeth W. wrote, “I came across your booklet How to Know God. I read the whole Scripture booklet without stopping. I enjoyed it so much. It is His pure Word. My spirit was overflowing.” Alick M. called it “treasures from heaven.”

“My name is Emlan M. I learned that Jesus is only a prophet like other prophets and not a son of God because God cannot have a son. I became confused when I was given the booklet, How to Know God. What confused me is the fact that Jesus rose [from the dead] and He lives. No other prophet has a record that he died and rose from the dead. Now, following His story in detail, I find that He rose from the dead to give life to those who believe in Him. No other prophet has lived to give life to others. This was my turning point to give my life to Christ. Thank God that I found Him through His Son.”

“He rose from the dead to give life to those who believe in Him.”

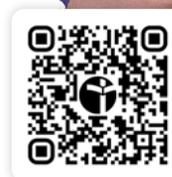

We pray that all our Scripture booklets lead people, like Mike and Emlan, to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. The How to Know God booklet is now printed in 99 languages including Persian-Farsi, Arabic, Hindi, Bengali, and Cebuano. You can also read these and many more booklets online at wmpress.org/read-booklet, or by scanning the QR code!
