

In Exodus God instructs Moses to use skilled artisans with the spirit of wisdom to design holy garments of glory and beauty for Aaron and his sons. "They shall take the gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen, and they shall make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, artistically worked" (Exodus 28:5, 6). After these beautiful masterpieces were completed, God also gave the command, "Take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments, on his sons and on the garments of his sons with him; and he and his garments shall be hallowed, and his sons and his sons' garments with him" (Exodus 29:21). Staining such beautiful clothing offends our senses.

Blood and oil are hard stains to remove from fabric so why would God deliberately ruin such beautiful clothing? The garments were beautiful, but beauty alone does not consecrate. The real beauty was in the blood. In a similar way humanity was created in God's image to reflect His glory and beauty. His image remains but it has been marred by sin. Being washed in the blood of Jesus might seem like a gross image, but by His sacrifice, we are forgiven, made holy, and set apart for God's service. The blood of Christ does not diminish our beauty before God but restores it and consecrates it.
